

After reading the book, let's discuss the story together and see how much of the book you remember!

- What is the book 'Zayn and Zoey Take a Trip to South America' about?
- Which is the largest country in the continent of South America?
- Which language do people in Brazil speak? What language is commonly spoken in the rest of South America?
- Where is the biggest carnival in the world held?
- Can you name the famous 98-foot statue on top of the hill?
- Which river did Zayn and Zoey take a cruise on?
- Do you remember the name of the largest rainforest in the world?
- Can you name five creatures that the twins saw in the rainforest?
- Which is the longest mountain range in the world?

HANDS ON FUN!

Here are some fun activities related to South America to do with children.

Make Your Rio Carnival Mask

Would you like to attend the world's largest carnival? Let's make a mask that you can take along!

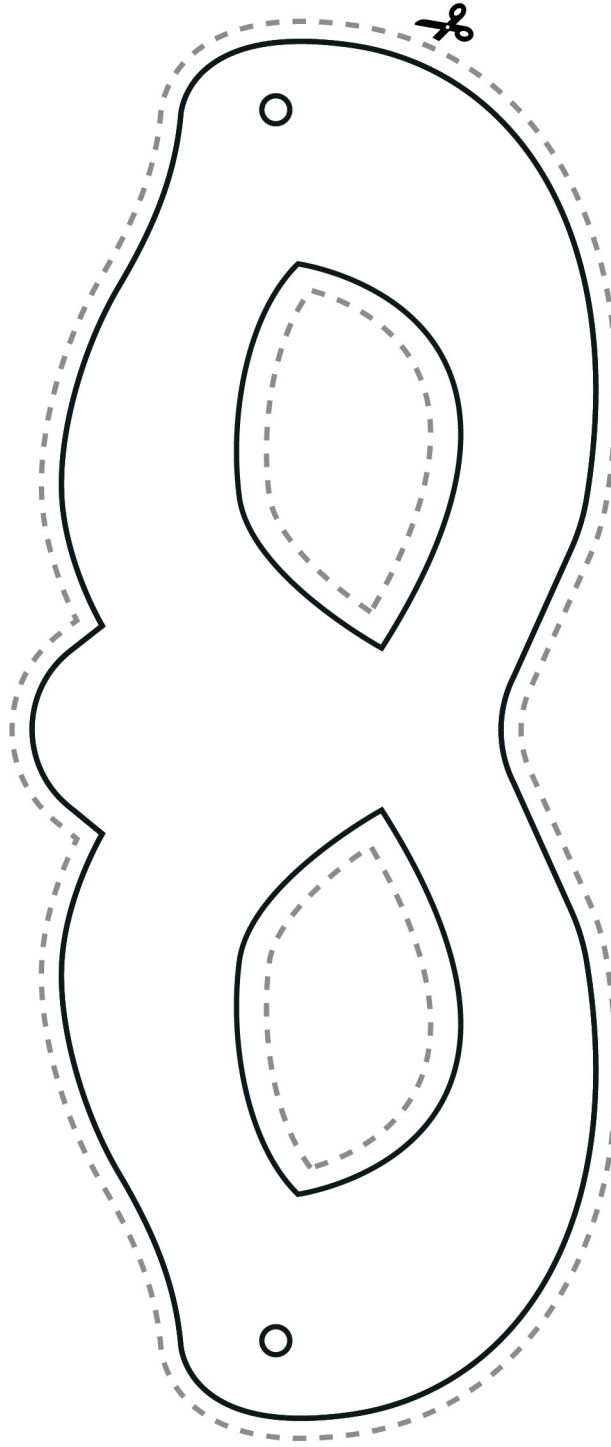

Things you need:

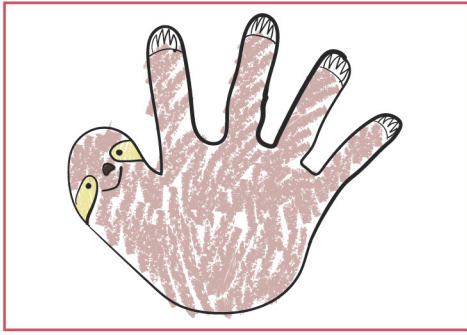

- Thick coloured paper
- Small colourful feathers
- Sequins
- Glitter glue
- Glue
- Ice cream stick

Steps to follow:

1. Cut out the mask template from the printable here.
2. Trace around the mask on thick colourful paper and cut it out along with the eye-holes.
3. Decorate it with the feathers, sequins, and glitter as you wish.
4. Glue the ice cream stick at the back of the mask, either in the middle or on the side.
5. Hold the stick handle and show off your creation!

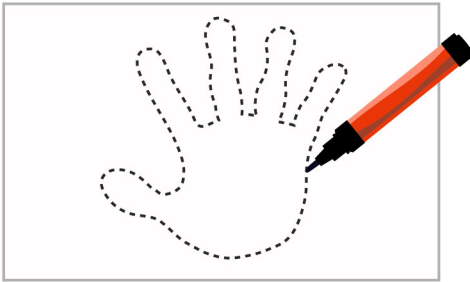

Sloth Hand

Did you know that the sloths found in the Amazon are 3-times stronger than humans? Let's make this incredible animal using our palms!

Things you need:

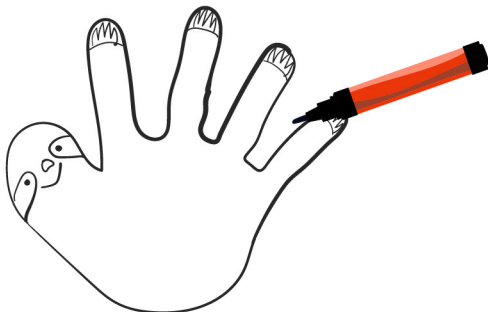

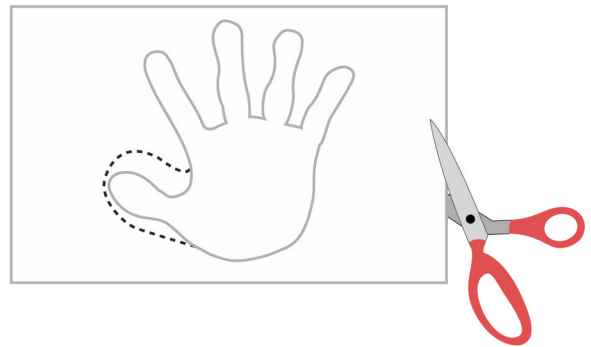

- Paper
- Brown and grey crayon
- Scissors
- Black marker

Steps to follow:

1. Trace around your hand on the paper.

2. Make the thumb slightly wider. Now cut along the outline of the hand.

3. Using the marker, draw the sloth's face on the paper thumb and claws on other fingers as shown here.

4. Colour the palm area with brown crayon for it to look fluffy. Your sloth is ready to hang on your soft board!
